Cross-Institutional Application Form

For UNSW Law UG and JD Students only

Never Stand Still | Law

UNSW undergraduate law and JD students may be permitted to undertake elective courses offered in LLB programs at other recognised law schools (maximum 48UOC equivalent, including previous credit transfer – this is only for pre-2013 students). If you start your law studies in 2013, please contact student services for more information. Please complete this form, attach your academic transcript and copies of course outlines, then submit to Level 2 counter.

Law Faculty students applying for cross institutional studies must meet the following criteria:

- WAM 65+
- Completed most core courses or at electives stage
- Cross-institutional Course is not on offer in the semester at UNSW
- No unfinalised results
- No failures in the last 12 months
- No overload permitted – both UNSW course load and cross-institutional course equates to 24 UOC for UG students and 30 UOC for JD students

IMPORTANT NOTE: If approved for cross institutional studies, you MUST send confirmation of enrolment to your student advisor and you are required to complete the university cross-institutional application form downloadable at https://my.unsw.edu.au/student/academiclife/Forms.html#CrossInstitutionalStudy
