

PROGRAM APPLICATION FORM 2010

LAW S8052 HUMAN RIGHTS INTERNSHIP

- Please read the Rules and Procedures for Internship applications before completing the Internship Application Form.
- All applicants must include the following documents with their Internship Application Form:
 - A copy of your academic statement (from myUNSW).
 - A resume including details of any previous qualifications or experience especially relevant to your application.
- A statement (not more than 250 words) outlining your interest in undertaking an internship at one of the organisations you have listed.
- Email your Internship Application Form and supporting documents to the Program Coordinator Catherine Renshaw at Catherine.Renshaw@unsw.edu.au. Late applications will not be accepted.

SECTION A: STUDENT PERSONAL DETAILS

Name: _____

Student ID: _____

Daytime contact telephone numbers: _____

Email address: _____

Program:

- 9211 5211 9200 5740

Expected date of completion: _____

SECTION B: COURSES AND SESSIONS

Please indicate in which session/s of 2010 you are interested in doing an internship:

- First Session 2010
- Second Session 2010

SECTION C: PARTNER ORGANISATIONS YOU WISH TO APPLY FOR

List up to 3 Partner Organisations in which you would like to be an intern. You do not need to nominate more than one if you do not wish to do so:

- The Asia Pacific Forum of National Human Rights Institutions
- Disability Discrimination Legal Centre
- Public Interest Advocacy Centre
- Indigenous Policy and Dialogue Research Unit
- Disability Studies and Research Centre
- Edmund Rice Centre
- Australian Human Rights Centre Migrant and Refugee Rights Project
- Other*

*It is also open to students to propose their own Partner Organisation, subject to agreement between the Organisation and the Program Coordinator, Catherine Renshaw: Catherine.Renshaw@unsw.edu.au or 02 9385 9652.

I have provided: Academic Transcript Resume A Statement of Interest in the organisation

I acknowledge I have read the rules below.

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

Applications open on Monday 26 October and close on Monday 23 November 2009.

RULES AND PROCEDURES

1. The LAWS8052 Human Rights Internship Program is available in both Session 1 and Session 2 each year. Details of the internship requirements and information about the participating Centres are available on the Law Faculty website at:

2. The Internship Program is open to students enrolled in the following programs who have completed the pre-requisite course LAWS8181 International Human Rights:

- Master of Laws (9200)
- Graduate Diploma in Law (5740)
- Master of Human Rights Law and Policy (9211)
- Graduate Diploma in Human Rights Law and Policy (5211)

3. Participation is by competitive application and selection and allocation of participants is undertaken by the Program Coordinator and the Partner Organisations. Students must apply by completing this form and submit via email to Catherine.Renshaw@unsw.edu.au by the closing date. Incomplete applications (ie. without transcript, resume, and statement) will not be processed. Late applications will not be accepted.

4. Students will be advised of the outcome of their application via their student email account only (i.e. z(SID@student.unsw.edu.au). It is student's responsibility to check their student email account regularly.