MAKING AN APPOINTMENT

- When you contact us you will be given the next available appointment.
- We can arrange a telephone interpreter if you need one. Please let us know at the time of making your appointment if you need an interpreter.
- We give advice on Tuesday and Thursday nights and at particular times during the day to people who live, work or study in the Randwick / Botany Council areas.
- We give legal advice at our office at the UNSW campus and at some outreach services.

AT YOUR APPOINTMENT

- You will first talk to a law student who will ask you for personal details and about your legal problem.
- The student will then go and talk to a lawyer about your legal problems.
- The student and lawyer will come and speak to you and the lawyer will give you advice.
- Your appointment time may be delayed depending on how many volunteer lawyers and law students are present.
- We do our best to avoid delays.
- Advice sessions are staffed by volunteer lawyers and law students.
- There is a KLC staff member supervising each session.
- Ask at the desk if you want to speak with the supervisor.

YOUR RIGHTS

- You have a right to clear, easy to understand advice.
- All the information you give us will be confidential.
- We give advice to everyone – but we cannot give advice to both sides in a dispute.
- If we can't help you, we will help you find help somewhere else.
- We do not give ongoing help in all cases.
- You will not be treated unfairly because of your gender, race, sexuality, disability, age, marital status or religion.

WHAT WE EXPECT FROM YOU

- To respect other people's worth and dignity.
- To not treat workers, students and other clients unfairly because of their gender, race, religion, marital status, disability, age or sexuality.
- To respect the privacy of other clients and staff.
- To tell staff if you are not happy with the services you are receiving or the way in which they are being provided.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

- To give clients the best service, we can only help one person in the dispute. This is because the information you give us is confidential and we won't be able to act in your best interest if we're also advising the other side.
- If we are going to help you, we must first check that we haven't already helped the other person.
- If we have already advised the other person we can't help you BUT we will arrange for you to get legal advice elsewhere.

UNHAPPY WITH OUR SERVICE?

You can complain to:

- the lawyer you saw at the time OR
- the supervising staff member OR
- the Director during the day OR
- an outside body such as:

Legal Services Commissioner

Telephone: 9377 1800

Freecall: 1800 242 958

TTY: 9377 1855

Law Society

Telephone: 9926 0333

HOW TO COMPLAIN

- You can write down your complaint and send it to the Centre or tell someone at the Centre.
- You should complain as soon as possible.
- Delays make it more difficult to deal with your complaint.

COMPLAINTS PROCESS

- A staff member will look at your complaint within 7 days. They might contact you for more information.
- The staff member will decide how to respond to your complaint and make sure action is taken.
- You will be told what is being done to resolve your complaint.
- Your complaint will be dealt with:
 - seriously;
 - quickly;
 - confidentially; and
 - without stopping your right to get more legal help from the Centre.
