Professor Julie Stubbs

Director
Master of Criminal Justice & Criminology

Julie joined UNSW Law in 2010 having come from the University of Sydney. Prior to that she worked with the NSW Bureau of Crime Statistics and Research. Her research interests include: legal responses to violence against women, homicide, restorative justice, and bail; she has also undertaken research on young offenders, and on cross-cultural issues in criminal justice. She is currently an adviser to VicHealth on violence against women, and has been a member of: the NSW Advisory Panel on Domestic and Family Homicides; the Criminal Justice Sexual Assault Taskforce; and the Department of Corrective Services Institutional Ethics Committee. She has undertaken consultancy research for Legal Aid NSW and several criminal justice agencies.

Julie is a member of the Editorial Board for the journals: Australian and New Zealand Journal of Criminology, British Journal of Criminology (International Advisory Board), Critical Criminology, and Current Issues in Criminal Justice.

Dr Alyce McGovern

Alyce McGovern lectures in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences. She specialises in police-media relations, representations and perceptions of police, criminal justice agencies and their use of new media and social media technologies, policing, policing and governance, police leadership and management, criminology and criminal justice teaching and assessment approaches. Prior to coming to UNSW, Alyce worked at Charles Sturt University as a lecturer in justice studies and policing, and she has also held numerous research roles on issues such as fear of crime, policing migration and community engagement.

HOW TO APPLY

Apply online at www.apply.unsw.edu.au

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>To commence</th>
<th>Applications due</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Semester 1, 2012</td>
<td>End of October 2011</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Semester 2, 2012</td>
<td>End of April 2012</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Late applications may be considered. Please contact Law Student Services at law@unsw.edu.au or visit our website at www.law.unsw.edu.au

FEES

For 2012 fees please visit www.law.unsw.edu.au/future-students/postgraduate/cost

SINGLE COURSE ENROLMENT

Students interested in studying a single course, on a nonaward basis, with the option to credit courses towards a future degree program can apply by completing the form available at www.law.unsw.edu.au/singlecourse

CONTACT INFORMATION

UNSW Law Student Services
Email: law@unsw.edu.au
Telephone: 02 9385 2227
Website: www.law.unsw.edu.au
The Master of Criminal Justice & Criminology is designed for graduates seeking an interdisciplinary specialised education at an advanced level in criminal justice law, policy, theory and practice.

It is jointly offered by UNSW Law and the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences drawing on the acknowledged excellence in research and teaching in criminal justice and criminology in each faculty.

The program provides graduates from a variety of disciplines with a strong understanding of criminological and legal research, and legal and criminological perspectives on the practices and regulation of criminal justice institutions and processes.

PROGRAM STRUCTURE

All students are required to complete the compulsory course, Explaining Crime in the first year of study, and non-law graduates must also complete the compulsory courses Legal Concepts, Research & Writing for Criminal Justice & Criminology and Conceptualising Criminal Laws.

This program does not lead to a professional qualification for legal practice.

The information in this publication is correct at October 2011. The University reserves the right to alter any program or admission without prior notice. CRICOS Provider No.00098G. © 2011 UNSW Law