This course affords students the opportunity to work in one of the specialist Centres within the Faculty of Law which undertakes advocacy or research on aspects of policy and practice relating to an area of social justice. Social Justice Interns will be enrolled in LAWS3307 (for undergraduate students) or JURD7307 (for Juris Doctor students). Enrolled students are required to attend internship classes which will assist you in successfully completing your internship and the assessment items required.

Participating Law Centres in Summer 2014/15:
- AustLII
- Centre for Law, Markets and Regulations
- Cyberspace Law and Policy Community
- Diplomacy Training Program
- National Children’s and Youth Law Centre
- National Pro Bono Resource Centre

Participating Law Centres in S1 2015:
- Andrew & Renata Kaldor Centre for International Refugee Law
- AustLII
- Australian Human Rights Centre
- Centre for International Finance and Regulation
- Centre for Law, Markets and Regulations
- Cyberspace Law and Policy Community
- Diplomacy Training Program
- Gilbert + Tobin Centre of Public Law
- Indigenous Law Centre
- National Children’s and Youth Law Centre
- National Pro Bono Resource Centre
- The Social Justice Project

How to Apply?
Apply via the Experiential Learning Course Application Form
If you wish to apply to more than one placement, you must complete another application form via the above link.

Updated: 26 August 2014